

in this letter, i just wanted to ask you to please stay with me. and i know, your answer is you would love to. but i will still ask, so i can tell you in this way, how much i want my life now just because you are in it. just because you are now with me, i want my life so much more, so much alot. because even if i somehow stayed before, i still would not have wanted this life. but now i do. as long as i get to be with you. and i want to ask, please stay with me with all your heart. i want you to stay with me and want it. and want it alot. and always want it. i want you to just think of me and me only, just be with me and me only, i am so selfish, that anything you do i want it to be for me, related to me, done to me. i want all of you issu. all your heart, all your mind, all your soul, all your body. all the good parts, all the bad parts. i want the past you, i want the present you, i want the future you. damn, i love you so much that never have i ever before this dreamt of a future. i mean, let alone a better future, i havent even thought about having a future before i met you. and now i think about it all the time. and whenever there is my future, there is you with me. whenever there is my life, there is you with me.

whenever there is razey, there is issu with him. his, and only his (pls). i want you to be mine love. fully, wholeheartedly, completely. i want you to be mine. and just stay mine alone. i am overpossessive me knows, and let me know if you dont lieks that pls (dont forget), but i cant help it. you are the only person i have felt this so great and strong urge to just keep to myself. so much that i dont even want people knowing about you, seeing you, looking at you. i just want all of you to myself alone. idk if its something you consider bad tho haha. lemme know. but yes, i want you only to myself issu. and no one elses. not even like a small part of you, i dont even want you to even think of anyone else hehe. i mean ofc thats not possible. but damn i am so selfish that i just want you to just think about me. just need me. just want me. just miss me. just love me. just show kindness, sweetness, care, silliness and all other qualities to me and me alone. just stay with me. please stay with me. even though i am like this, maybe i am terrible person too, bad too at times, but please stay. i will fix everything i can for you, will try my hard if you think something is not good i will try to fix it, or at the most suppress it. but please stay. and please stay. and please stay. and please stay. and please stay. i love you issu, so much so alot. mahal kita my love. mahal kita sobra.
